

mo·men·tum

(n) pl momeh*ta / or momentums / : 1. strength or force gained by motion through a series of moments or events producing velocity.